NOTES

1. If a Herbazone Distributor has recruited you, it is compulsory for that distributor to sign this application form in the applicable space. The distributor is called your PROMOTER. If the promoter does not sign the form, or if you do not have a promoter, you will not be part of a network, but the beginning of a new network.
2. A promoter is required to help you, guide you, train and support you in all aspects. By co-signing this agreement, the promoter undertakes to exercise his/her responsibilities towards you.
3. Herbazone products may not be sold in retail stores on shelves, accessible to the general public unless it is in a consultative environment with a Herbazone distributor or agent.
4. As distributor, you are responsible to register with your local tax office and submit tax returns declaring the income derived from the activities as Herbazone distributor. If your personal sales exceed the relevant limit for VAT, it is your responsibility to register for VAT.

AGREEMENT

1. Upon receipt of the signed agreement & a copy of your ID by Head Office you will be loaded to the system. Once you are loaded to the system an invoice will be sent to you for joining fees. On receipt of proof of payment you will be a registered Herbazone distributor
2. The initial registration fee includes the first year's annual membership. Membership needs to be renewed annually. Only Herbazone distributors with an active, valid membership may qualify for discount and downline commission.
3. As a Herbazone distributor, you are an independent contractor and responsible for taking orders from your customers. You are responsible to execute the order as well as for arranging collection and/or delivery.
4. As a Herbazone distributor, you are an independent contractor and cannot represent, commit or sign any documentation on behalf of Herbazone Head Office.
5. Ownership of Herbazone products purchased by you will not be carried over until the full purchase price has been received.
6. If a distributor qualifies for downline commission, the downline commission will be credited directly against the distributor's Herbazone account at the beginning of the month that follows the one in which downline commission was earned.
7. Downline commission will only be credited to OPTION 1 active regular distributors with a valid membership, who purchase a minimum of R 1140 (VAT incl) product, including specials, per month. All privileges as a Herbazone distributor are terminated with expiry or termination of membership.
8. As a Herbazone distributor, you will be responsible to collect payment in respect of products sold to the buyer. Herbazone will furnish you with a recommended retail price list.
9. As a Herbazone distributor, you will be responsible to purchase products for distribution from Head Office or from a Herbazone depot, before reselling to a customer. The purchase prices are determined according to a sliding scale, based on your previous month's performance. An Option 2 – Home Users discount is fixed at 15% on all products, irrespective of how much he purchase. Consult your business guide for details.
10. To assist in sales activities, Herbazone stationary, promotional material and sales aids can be purchased from Herbazone Head Office.
11. Herbazone undertakes to comply with the code of ethics of the Direct Selling Association of South Africa and the Health Products Association of South Africa. In turn, every Herbazone distributor is required to comply with the respective code of ethics, as well as the code and conduct of Herbazone.
12. The discount- and/or downline commission structure may be adjusted from time to time. Herbazone reserves the right to do so, provided that the distributors are notified at least 4 weeks in advance.
13. As a Herbazone distributor, it is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with the rules and regulations, code of conduct and individual product knowledge. You are encouraged to attend training sessions organized from time to time.
14. As a Herbazone distributor, you shall not conduct any activities which may be injurious to the reputation of Herbazone, or their products or any other Herbazone distributor. Misconduct in this regard will lead to immediate termination of membership.
15. This agreement may be cancelled with the written permission of your promoter, and with the approval of Head Office. You may rejoin under another promoter, provided a new agreement is entered into.
16. I have read the contents of this document and I am in agreement with all the provisions contained therein.
17. To terminate your membership you are required to give Herbazone head office written notification which will be processed within a month.
18. Distributors will take care in how social media is used and ensure at all times that the integrity of the brand and it's products are protected.
19. HerbaZone may use my contact details for sending me e-mails & sms's to inform me of specials and other information.
20. An invoice will be processed once you've been loaded to the system. Payment can then be made to correct account and reference.
